

Trochę, nic, jakiegokolwiek

W języku angielskim słowa "some", "any" i "no" to tzw. określniki ilościowe (quantifiers), które stosujemy w zależności od kontekstu, aby mówić o nieokreślonej ilości czegoś. Chodź je poznać!

SOME	ANY	NO
tworzymy z "some" zdania TWIERDZĄCE	tworzymy z "any" pytania i zdania przeczące*	tworzymy z "no" zdania przeczące (pamiętaj, aby nie dodawać czasownika przeczącego)
trochę, kilka, jakieś lub w pytaniach używamy "some" jako propozycję	trochę, jakieś, albo w przeczeniu, żaden, żadna, etc.	żadne, żadna, żadnych, etc.
I need some new clothes.	I don't need any clothes. Do you need any clothes?	I need no clothes.
She bought some chocolate.	She didn't buy any chocolate. Did she buy any chocolate?	She bought no chocolate.
He has some friends.	He doesn't have any friends. Does he have any friends?	He has no friends.

Trochę, nic, jakiegokolwiek

Examples:

- I would like some water, please.
- Can I have some bread with my meal?
- There are some apples in the fridge.
- She bought some new clothes for the summer.
- We need some help with this project.
- Do you have any questions about the homework?
- There isn't any milk left in the fridge.
- Are there any tickets available for the concert?
- I don't have any pens to write with.
- Is there any cake left from the party?

Ćwiczenia

1 Wybierz odpowiedni wyraz i uzupełnij nim zdanie.

1. Do you have _____ water?
2. I need _____ help with my homework.
3. There are _____ cookies left in the jar.
4. I don't have _____ money in my wallet.
5. Are there _____ books on the shelf?
6. I saw _____ interesting movies last week.
7. Is there _____ coffee left in the pot?
8. There are _____ students in the classroom.
9. We have _____ information about the project.
10. He has _____ idea what to do next.

2 Wykorzystaj słowa z nawiasów i przekształć zdania.

1. I have a pen. (Use "some")
2. She doesn't have a cat. (Use "any")
3. There are apples in the basket. (Use "some")
4. He has friends in the city. (Use "no")
5. Do you have milk? (Use "any")

Ćwiczenia

1 Wybierz odpowiedni wyraz i uzupełnij nim zdanie.

1. any
2. some
3. some
4. any
5. any
6. some
7. any
8. some
9. some
10. no

2 Wykorzystaj słowa z nawiasów i przekształć zdania.

1. I have some pens.
2. She doesn't have any cats.
3. There are some apples in the basket.
4. He has no friends in the city.
5. Do you have any milk?

